

Use of Cookies

We inform you that this website installs first-party and third-party cookies when you visit its pages.

By continuing to browse, we understand that you accept their use.

Cookies are non-executable text files that store information about the user. We use them to facilitate browsing, improve the user experience, and obtain statistical data on website usage.

Types of Cookies used on this Website

1. Technical Cookies

These cookies allow the user to navigate through the website, platform, or application and to use the different options or services available on it (such as controlling data traffic, identifying sessions, or accessing restricted areas).

2. Personalization Cookies

These cookies allow the user to access the service with certain predefined general characteristics based on criteria in the user's device (such as language, browser type, or regional configuration).

3. Analytical Cookies

These cookies enable the monitoring and analysis of user behavior on the website. The information collected is used to measure activity, analyze browsing behavior, and improve the website based on user interactions and usage data.

Who uses and has access to Cookie information?

Only the owner of this website and the company providing maintenance and analysis services have access to the cookies managed by this site.

Third parties that store cookies on your device may also have access to them according to their own privacy policies.

How to manage your Cookie preferences

Most browsers automatically accept cookies. However, you can configure your browser to reject them or to notify you whenever a server wants to store a cookie.
